“Easter”

The most widely accepted theory of the origin of the term (Easter) is that it is derived from the name of an Old English goddess mentioned by the 7th to 8th-century English monk Bede, who wrote that Ēosturmōnath (Old English 'Month of Ēostre', translated in Bede's time as "Paschal month") was an English month, corresponding to April, which he says "was once called after a goddess of theirs named Ēostre, in whose honour feasts were celebrated in that month".

DEN, Conn. — The specter of being lost to time as they are feeling will live with Annie Pankowski of the University of Wisconsin's women's hockey team.

For the first time in eight years, the Badgers are national champions after winning their fifth NCAA title Sunday.

A year ago, she was cut from the U.S. Olympic team for the second time. There was just a feeling — that we just had it. Whatever it is, this team had it.

"We weren't afraid to lose. We were going right at them. And to leave this amazing program with another national championship is something that I will cherish forever."

Badgers coach Mark Johnson said Saturday that someone would leave the championship game knowing she had made special play that will leave a life-long memory.

It belonged to Pankowski, who scored a second-period, short-handed goal to build on the lead

Romans 1:1

³ For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴ that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵ and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. ⁶ After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷ Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, ⁸ and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.

¹⁴ And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith...¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.

¹⁶ For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

40 For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day."

John 6:40

²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; ²⁶ and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"
